

†
J.M.J.

PRAYERS FOR THE ELDERLY TO THE
IMMACULATE HEART
OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

WWW.MOTHERSFORPRIESTS.ORG

I. O Mary,
Merciful Mother,
stir up in our hearts deep sorrow and humble contrition for all the sins of our whole lives.
May we avail ourselves of the powerful cleansing from sin in the Sacrament of Confession Preserve us from sins of the flesh, and bestow on us consolations of the spirit.

II. O Mary,
Our Lady of Sorrows, you endured the greatest of sufferings in your compassion with your Son in His sorrowful Passion, impart to us your patience in suffering.
May we find joy as we unite all of our sufferings to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

III. O Mary,
Our Lady of Joy, you awaited the Resurrection of your Son with steadfast Faith, share with us your strong Faith in our Risen Lord, and obtain for us robust hope in our own resurrection in the body on the Last Day.
As we accept our infirmity, sickness and limitations, may we humbly receive the love and care which are offered to us.

IV. O Mary,
Our Lady of Pentecost, you prayed with and for the Apostles and disciples in the upper room.
You accompanied by intercessory prayer the great work of the spread of the Gospel throughout the world.

Grant a great power to our prayers that the light of the Gospel may illumine the hearts of our families, our children and grandchildren, nieces and nephews,
grand nieces
and grand nephews, and all future generations.

Like the early Christian community, may we be of one mind and heart.

Help us be patient with one another in our weaknesses, faults, and failures of memory and attention.

V. O Mary,
Our Lady of Ephesus, as you spent the latter years of your life in the house of St. John, the Apostle of Love, help us to accept the loss of our houses and our choices of what we eat and when.

Enable us to fully dedicate this phase of our lives to growth in love, thanksgiving for all the blessings of our lives, forgiveness for all who have offended us, humble acceptance of the will of Jesus for us.

May we accept with trust the losses of privacy and possessions, and patiently endure the decline of our bodies and minds.

As you filled your time with prayer
night and day, form in our hearts that prayerful spirit that we may find meaning and purpose in redeeming the time and making reparation for sin.

VI. O Mary,
Our Lady of Viaticum, obtain for us the graces of the reception of the Last Rites.
May the Sacrament of Anointing we receive be most fruitful in our hearts.
Please teach us the utmost reverence for the Real Presence of Jesus in Holy Communion.
Grant us a holy longing to receive Him sacramentally and spiritually.

VII. O Mary,
Eternal Queen of Heaven, draw us from the distractions of the world, to focus on the things of Heaven.
Please make us more vividly aware of the great cloud of witnesses, the Communion of the Saints in Heaven.
May we be ready to join them, when our Father calls us home. Amen.

We offer you our fears, to replace them with trust.

We offer you our poverty and deprivations, to fill us with spiritual riches and graces.

We offer you our pains, to make them fruitful by union with the Holy Wounds of Jesus.

We offer you our weakness, to sanctify it by surrender to God's will.

We offer you our loneliness, to accompany us with your maternal affection.

We offer you our hearts, to protect them from any bitterness, unforgiveness, or hate, and to heal us and sustain us with love.

We offer you our hopes, to elevate them to a pure desire for Heaven with you and your Son, and all the angels and saints. Amen.

†
J.M.J.

CONSECRATION OF OUR COMMUNITY TO THE IMMACULATE
HEART OF MARY

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, Our Blessed Mother, ever-virgin, to you we consecrate our own hearts, our home in this community, our rooms, its hallways, gathering places
and dining spaces.
On behalf of all the residents here, we ask for you to take possession of this place to enrich us with your blessings
and graces.

Please extend over us and all of our families your mantle of grace to protect from all bodily and spiritual harm.

Banish from this place all darkness and despair.
Shed upon us the light of your Flame of Love.

We entrust to you our nurses, their aides, the staff, activities directors, volunteers, and administration.

Renew their hearts with patience, kindness, and compassion,
in true Faith.

May they be rewarded in this life and the next for their attention to our needs and requests, for seeing in us your suffering Son.

Eternal Queen of Heaven,
Queen of Angels
and of Men, send forth your holy angels to protect us from the evil one.

May we find shelter and refuge in your Immaculate Heart, in the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, your Son. Amen.