

"I desire therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all men: For kings, and for all that are in high station: that we may lead a quiet and a peaceable life in all piety and chastity." (1 Timothy 2:2)

"And seek the peace of the city, to which I have caused you to be carried away captives; and pray to the Lord for it: for in the peace thereof shall be your peace." (Jeremiah 29:7)

Pray for all those who hold public office and for various groups in need.

"Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body." (Hebrews 13:3)

"Is any of you sad? Let him pray. . . . and pray one for another" (James 5:13,15)

"And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it." (1 Corinthians 12:26)

Pray for those who have sickness, injury, and suffering of all kinds. Pray especially for those who are near to death.

"Brethren, pray for us." (1 Thess 5:25)

"Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he send forth labourers into his harvest." (Matthew 9:38)

"Obey your prelates, and be subject to them. For they watch as being to render an account of your souls; that they may do this with joy, and not with grief. For this is not expedient for you. Pray for us." (Hebrews 13:17-18)

Pray for your priests, bishops, the pope and for an increase in response to vocations to the priesthood and religious life.
