THE INVITATION FOR
“OUR MOST COMPASSIONATE
MOTHER YEARNING FOR THE
SALVATION OF SOULS”
DEVOTION FOR PRIVATE USE AND
UNDER A DIRECTION OF A PRIEST
Words from our Blessed Mother Directing her Children

My children, I lead you to pray with me. Read these words. I will lead you to pray in them. If you feel your heart growing closer to me in them, to the point you pray with me in this daily, please seek out my son – the priest – from whom you received this brochure – either from a private encounter, a Eucharistic procession, or a Mass regarding this image. He will counsel you in what to do next.

Step 1
A Meditation from the Tender Heart of Mary for the
“Our Most Compassionate
Mother Yearning for the Salvation of Souls”
Devotion

“Be like Thomas. Ask to touch Christ where He suffers – where true love and mercy flow – so by embracing His suffering love, we can fully love Him and others. See the people close to you. Hear the people close to you. Embrace their suffering – bring what you hear and see – their emotional, spiritual and/or physical suffering – to my Son on the Cross. See that person wrapped in the purple cloth, clinging to my Son’s bloody, beaten and bruised body. Then humbly bring me your heart and small prayers – your little offerings – bring them to me spiritually as I comfort and console my Son and this person clinging to Him. I embrace them, kiss them, and shed tears for them – seeking to keep them one with my Son. I do not shy away from the blood and the pain. I embrace it, and my comfort and consolation, along with your heart and prayer in my embrace, will unite this person’s suffering completely to my Son’s suffering – redeeming the suffering and bringing forth the fruit of the Father – the salvation of souls.”

Step 2
Words from
Our Blessed Mother
Calling You to Embrace a Specific Person and
His (Her) Suffering

“My child, I see how much you want to embrace this deep and prolonged suffering of this person. It grieves me deeply that you are struggling in this call.

My child, do not be led astray by the Evil one, who loves the small mindedness of this world – a world bent on pleasure above all else with no place for suffering. Satan smiles when you think maybe you should just offer platitudes or feel-good phrases then go on your way. Satan laughs when your struggle to embrace this person's suffering overwhelms you, and you just want to quit. He delights when the weight of this burden makes you fall for the lie of 'mercy' that will simply end this person's suffering.

My child, be assured I am here. See me kneeling at the foot of the Cross – see how I long to help you in this, so my Son can redeem this suffering to save souls and fulfill the will of the Father. When you've tried to help this person carry his (her) suffering to my Son's Cross, yet felt like your efforts failed because you lacked something, you were right. You cannot do this alone! You need to be in spiritual union with me, kneeling at the foot of the Cross. Look at this image – see how I yearn for suffering to be redeemed by my Son's passion, death and resurrection. See how I yearn to console those who are suffering, just as I consoled my Son. Now bring your intercession for this person with my intercession. Bring your heart and prayers for this person into my heart and prayers for him (her). Together, in spiritual union, we will console this person as we intercede for him (her) – uniting all the suffering with my Son's to save souls – the will of the Father!

My child, cling to this larger picture that thwarts suffering – the tool of Satan – by turning it against him as my Son redeems it all to save souls! This devotion destroys Satan's delight because in spiritual union with me, you can bring this person true mercy!

My child, when you unite spiritually in private with me, you will be able to embrace and enter into this person's suffering without being crushed, even when you feel deeply his (her) pain and weep over it. Your heart will not be crushed because your heart will be with mine. I will strengthen you and console you too by this spiritual union. My heart is in the one heart of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Our heart will unite with yours, and you will receive the true love and true mercy to show this person as your heart and mind are renewed by our heart and mind.

My child, be assured, that as you grow in spiritual union with me, which is essential to the Father's will and designs, your physical reaching out and embracing to this person will be enriched. As you listen to this person talk through his (her) pain and suffering, and as you embrace it and enter into and bring it to us in this private devotion, you will receive the loving words and actions this person needs, that flow from the Eternal heart of the Father. These words and actions will flow into my heart then into your heart for this person."
